Pinot Noir 2007

Good clarity and hue: clearly delineated cool-climate pinot fruit characters, tangy and brisk: good length. Screwcap. 13.5% alc.

Rating 90: To 2013: $30.00

James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion. 2010 Edition

Silver Medal at 2008 Ballarat Wine show

Pinot Noir 2009

Bramble & spicy nuances to the dark cherry fruit of the bouquet attests to the very cool climate, but the palate has unexpected weight and depth, perhaps due to warm vintage.

Rating 90. James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion. 2012 Edition

-Bronze Medals at both Ballarat Wine Show and Daylesford Wine Show

Silver medal Western Victorian Wine Challenge. 2011. Consumers choice award Western Victorian Wine Challenge 2011.

Sparkling Pinot Noir Blanc 2009- disgorged August 2010

Plenty of colour, and the bouquet offers plenty of character, with wild strawberry, pain grille and hints of florals, the palate is dry and chalky, tight and refined, with a long and fresh finish.

Rating 90. James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion. 2013 Edition.

-Bronze Medals at Ballarat Wine Show, Daylesford Wine Show and Kyneton Wine Show – 2nd in Class at Kyneton Show

Chardonnay 2009

This is the first vintage produced under the Myola label, grapes previously sold to the renowned Tomboy Hill Rebellion label.

Good mouth feel, fruity, nectarine and grapefruit flavors
